

BARA Coach trip to Norwich

15 September 2018

Norwich is a wonderful fusion of the modern and historic, one complementing the other. Like any great city its centre is easy to walk around and has a river at its heart.

As well as being the most complete medieval city in the UK, it has superb independent as well as High Street shopping, lively restaurants and a heritage that is a delight to explore.

Something for everybody

- Large covered market
- Two shopping centres
- Four department stores
- Boutiques & independent stores
- Charity and antique shops
- Lots of restaurants and cafés
- River walk
- History everywhere

Heritage Open Days

Every September thousands of free events are organised throughout the country. Norwich has been a big supporter from the start, opening its museums, many churches and historical buildings, and operating tours.

This year the Castle Museum which usually costs £9.50 is free on 15 September. The Museum of Norwich at the Bridewell is also free (usual cost £5.95)

Find out what is available at <https://www.heritageopendays.org.uk/> If you don't have internet access, we have printed copies which you can view on the notice boards in Birdwood Rd and St Thomas's Rd. You can book on-line or by phoning Tourist Information 01603 727950

Some events require pre-booking and can be limited – contact details on the website or printed copy. If you would like specific information let us know and we will try to find it out for you. We have a list of charity shops and map of churches and will provide a tourist map of the City Centre.

We will leave Ancaster Way at 8.30am and be picked up from Norwich at 5pm.

Fill in the slip below and return it to 52 Birdwood Road by 5pm on 20 August 2018.
